To the Honorable David R. Jones, Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge:

Randy W. Williams (the "Trustee"), chapter 7 trustee for the estate of Vanderhall Exotics of Houston, LLC f/k/a Global Motorcars of Houston, LLC (the "Debtor"), files this Motion to Compromise Controversy with Citibank, N.A. ("Citi" or "Settling Party"), pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

Summary of Relief Requested

1. The Trustee seeks approval of a settlement concerning the Trustee's fraudulent transfer claims asserted against Citi in Adversary Proceeding No. 19-3565. Under the proposed compromise, the Settling Party shall pay the Trustee $75,000.00 and the Trustee shall release all claims against the Settling Party. Citi waives the right to assert a claim under 11 U.S.C. § 502(h). A detailed description of the proposed compromise is set forth below. A copy of the parties' Settlement Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit A. While the Settling Party has agreed to the proposed compromise, the factual recitations set forth herein are solely those of the Trustee and are not necessarily agreed to by the Settling Party.

Statement of Facts

- 2. On July 5, 2017 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11.
- 3. On July 18, 2017, the Trustee was originally appointed as the chapter 11 trustee in this case. On July 24, 2017, upon the motion of the Trustee, the case was converted to chapter 7. Subsequently, the Trustee was duly appointed as the chapter 7 trustee in this case.
- 4. On July 3, 2019, the Trustee filed suit against Citi seeking to avoid and recover a total of $215,409.84 in transfers from the Debtor to Citi in the two years prior to the Petition Date as fraudulent transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 548 and applicable state law. The Trustee alleged that the transfers made by the Debtor were on account of personal charges of John Leontaritis, the owner of the Debtor, that did not benefit the Debtor. Of the transfers, $22,200.00 were made in the 90 days prior to the Petition Date, and the Trustee alternatively sought to avoid and recover those transfers as preferential transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 547.

The Proposed Settlement

- 5. Subject to Court approval, the parties have agreed as follows:
 - Within twenty (20) days from the execution of the Settlement Agreement and receipt of a Form W-9, the Settling Party shall pay to the Trustee $75,000.00 (the "Settlement Payment"). The Settlement Payment shall be made to the Trustee's counsel's trust account and held pending approval of this compromise;.

- Upon entry of this Order, counsel for the Trustee shall transfer the Settlement Payment to the Trustee.
- Upon entry of this Order, the Trustee releases all potential causes of action the estate may have against the Settling Party, including but not limited to causes of action pursuant to Chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code.
- Upon entry of this Order, the Settling Party waives the right to file a claim under 11 U.S.C. § 502(h).

Merits of the Compromise

- 6. The merits of a proposed compromise should be judged under the criteria set forth in Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414 (1968). TMT Trailer requires that a compromise must be "fair and equitable." TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424; In re AWECO, Inc., 725 F.2d 293, 298 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 469 U.S. 880 (1984). The terms "fair and equitable" mean that (i) senior interests are entitled to full priority over junior interests; and (ii) the compromise is reasonable in relation to the likely rewards of litigation. In re Cajun Electric Power Coop., 119 F.3d 349, 355 (5th Cir. 1997); In re Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F.2d 599, 602 (5th Cir. 1980).
- 7. In determining whether a proposed compromise is fair and equitable, a Court should consider the following factors:
 - (i) the probabilities of ultimate success should the claim be litigated;
 - (ii) the complexity, expense, and likely duration of litigating the claim;
 - (iii) the difficulties of collecting a judgment rendered from such litigation; and,
 - (iv) all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the compromise.

TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424. The Fifth Circuit has further elaborated on the factors to be considered in evaluating the wisdom of a proposed settlement. One factor to be considered is "the paramount interest of creditors with proper deference to their reasonable views." In re Foster

Mortgage Corp., 68 F.3d 914, 917 (5th Cir. 1996). Another factor bearing on the wisdom of the compromise is the extent to which the proposed settlement is the product of arms-length negotiation. In re Foster Mortgage Corp., 68 F.3d 914, 918 (5th Cir. 1996). In deciding whether to accept a compromise, a trustee is required to reach an informed judgment, after diligent investigation, as to whether it is prudent to eliminate the inherent risks, delays, and expense of prolonged litigation. In re Mailman Stream Carpet Cleaning Corp., 212 F.3d 632 (1st Cir. 2000). A court is not to substitute its own judgment for that of the trustee, but rather to "canvass the issues" and determine whether the settlement "falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness." In re W.T. Grant Co., 699 F.2d 599, 609 (2d Cir. 1983).

8. The Trustee believes that the proposed compromise satisfies the requirements established by the Supreme Court in TMT Trailer.

Analysis of Proposed Compromise

9. Probabilities of Ultimate Success. The Trustee believes he would ultimately prevail at trial on at least some, but not all, of the transfers in the complaint. Through informal discovery between the parties, the Trustee determined that a $55,015.00 transfer dated May 3, 2016, which the Debtor's bank statement shows as being sent to Citi itself was actually sent to a Citi account in the name of another defendant, Juergen Pichler. Additionally, the monthly statements of John Leontaritis show that he would frequently charge amounts to his personal Citi card with the Debtor as the merchant. Thus, when the Debtor would later pay off Leontaritis' personal credit card bill a portion of those payments were funds that had been essentially "loaned" to the Debtor by Citi through charges on Leontaritis' personal card. Approximately $68,000 of the charges provided some direct or indirect benefit to the Debtor. Accordingly, out of the approximately $215,000 in transfers listed in the complaint, the Trustee's best case scenario at trial would be $92,000. The Trustee recognizes that litigation always involves risk and uncertainty to all litigants. The Trustee believes the compromise of $75,000.00 accurately reflects the risks of litigation balanced with the expenses discussed below. Accordingly, this factor favors approval of the compromise.

- an hourly fee basis in this case. The adversary proceeding has not progressed beyond the filing of the complaint. Citi has not yet filed an answer. The Trustee estimates that the administrative expenses for counsel's prosecution of the case to trial, if necessary, could equal or exceed the discount being given to the Settling Party in this compromise. While the Trustee is seeking his attorneys' fees in the adversary proceeding, there is no certainty that they will be recoverable. Accordingly, settling this action early in the course of the adversary proceeding saves the estate both legal fees and expenses. This factor supports the proposed settlement.
- 11. Difficulty in Collecting Judgment. This factor did not weigh in the Trustee's consideration of the proposed settlement because Citi is a stable and solvent defendant.
- 12. Other Factors. The Trustee believes that the proposed compromise is equitable and serves the purposes underlying the Bankruptcy Code.

Accordingly, the Trustee requests that this Court approve the proposed settlement and compromise set forth above and for such other relief as is just.

Dated: October 14, 2019.
